

Nano Entrepreneurial Panel

May 6, 2:30-4:30 PM

3002 Electrical and Computer Engineering Building (ECEB)

Organized and moderated by CNST Graduate Students Initiative

Promoting Innovation Ecosystem@Illinois

What does it take to take that innovative idea from the lab, and start a company, develop it into a commercial product, and make a broad societal impact? What resources are available in the campus community and State-wide for you and colleagues to have the next startup? Yours may very well be the next Google, YouTube, Paypal, or Epiworks, NanoInk, Nanogen, Nanophase and the like.

Come join us for an illuminating and instructive panel discussion and reception.
